Walmart’s recently released FY2022 ESG Summary Report highlights our focus on Opportunity, Community, Sustainability, and Ethics and Integrity.

Key takeaways for FY2022:

- Suppliers report having reduced or avoided more than 574 million metric tons of supply chain emissions, to-date.
- More than $13.3 billion in goods and services have been sourced from ~2,600 diverse suppliers for our U.S. businesses.
- The average hourly wage for Walmart associates in the U.S. was over $16.50 per hour.
- 45% of U.S. management promotions went to women and 40% went to people of color.
- 72,000 associates enrolled in Live Better U since the program launch.

2. We pursue racial equity and social justice

Our 2021 Constituent Relations Annual Report highlights our efforts toward racial equity, diversity, and inclusion, through events, grants, and learnings, in pursuit of constant improvement.

Focal points:

- Providing access for children to learn at a 2-day STEM education event.
- Issuing up to 20 Empowering A Better Tomorrow scholarships to qualifying, previously incarcerated individuals who want an education.
- Celebrating diversity through minority, LBGTQ+, and disabled focused events.
- Supporting the Victory Institute’s Victory Congressional Internship.

3. New, nature-trip focused general store

Walmart partnered with Getaway to help guests live better by aiming to make traveling to nature even easier and convenient with new, innovative offerings, such as The General Store by Walmart, at select Getaway Outposts.

- How it works: The General Store by Walmart is a mini-retail experience that will include seasonal products, featuring quality goods from small businesses within the local community, sourced from Walmart and curated by the outdoor experts at Getaway.

The first General Store will open this August at Getaway Hill Country in Wimberley, Texas, with additional locations opening in California, Connecticut, Missouri and New York later this year.

4. $33M raised during 2022 CMNH campaign

Credit: CMNH

This year we celebrated our 35 years of partnership with the Children’s Miracle Network Hospitals \(CMNH\), where we raised more than $1 billion to help kids live better.

- What to know: Our 2022 campaign raised \$33 million to help CMNH to provide care for the 10 million children they treat each year.
- How it works: Walmart and Sam’s Club associates rally for the cause each year by asking customers for donations at the register and getting involved with fundraising at their locations.
